Engaging in Discipleship

For break-out discussion following the forum talk

1. Can you think of a conversation you have had in which you realized that you and the other person were using the same word or term differently? What was that like?
2. When things are said like "All roads lead to heaven," or "We are all worshipping the same God," does it make a difference if different people mean different things by words like "God" or "heaven" or "salvation" or "love"?
3. In the previous talk, we looked at authority. How do we use various authorities to evaluate truth statements? What happens to truth if the highest authority is simply public opinion?
