

Anglican Diocese of South Carolina Youth Commission

Diocesan Youth Commission is seeking applicants for the 2020-2021 school year. We are seeking cheerful servants who demonstrate spiritual maturity and leadership gifts and who are interested in developing skills and serving our Lord. This leadership group serves on youth events as well as at Diocesan Convention each year. Along with leading and serving, we teach skills including how to lead Bible studies, small groups, prayer, and share testimonies. Students are expected to serve in a leadership capacity in their church as well. This may include leading a small group Bible study, volunteering with middle school, or teaching children’s Sunday School.

Applications are due by July 15, 2020

Youth Commission is selected in July. Membership in Youth Commission is a high calling with significant responsibilities and is limited to 20 students. It is a selective group and not all who apply are accepted. We ask that you prayerfully consider applying if you fit the following description:
