Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Grace and Peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. There has never been a more promising time in the life of the Anglican Diocese of South Carolina. As we enter the third year of Bishop Edgar's consecration, we are purchasing property where buildings were lost, growing healthy congregations, planting new churches, and under contract for the land for our new diocesan camp. What an amazing season!

In a season like this, it is important for all diocesan committees to be populated with dedicated lay and clergy leaders. On behalf of the Nominating Committee, we are inviting the whole Diocese to consider prayerfully putting forward names for the open positions listed below. A nomination form for doing so is attached here.

The leadership of the Anglican Diocese of South Carolina is a shared responsibility of all the members of the Diocese. Each one of the open positions represents a key role that together make for a healthy Diocese. Please join me in praying for the Diocesan Convention and being a part of the nominating process.

Faithfully,

The Rev. Shay Gaillard +
