

The Anglican Women of the Anglican Diocese of South Carolina

December 19, 2024

Praise and Glory A Diocesan online giving account was set up for Praise and Glory in September with the assistance of Joy Hunter and Karen Rothenberger.

Praise and Glory published an article emphasizing the value of offering thanks to our Lord in a tangible way in the Fall Jubilate Deo.

$102.50 Praise and Glory offerings were received in September, bringing the total of offerings received through November 30, 2024 to $3504.45. $3401.95 has been transferred to the Camp Jubilee Summer Camp account as of November 30, 2024.

Diocesan Periodical Club (DPC): Each seminarian has been given a portion of the DPC money to offset expenses for the Fall semester.

Resource Manual: The Resource manual is on hold for now.

Website: The website is updated as needed.

Communications: All women's events will continue to be communicated through Mail Chimp, the Diocesan webpage, and social media as appropriate

Retreat: The board has agreed to postpone the retreat for the fall.

2024 Annual Gathering: The board is proposing to host the Annual Gathering in the Spring (April 26 or May 3). The location is to be determined. Summer Goss has been asked to be the speaker.

New Business: A banner has been made for the Anglican Women. This was coordinated by the Spiritual Life Chairman for the Anglican Women, Deborah Wright from St. Paul's Conway. Sunny would like to present this banner at the Diocesan Convention 2025 if possible.

At the invitation of Beth Edgar, Dab Dent, Praise and Glory chair, and Janet Stoda, Communications chair, attended the Women in Leadership luncheon on Oct. 9, 2024.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sunny Walker, President of the Anglican Women of the Anglican Diocese of South Carolina
