The Rev. Angel Lizardo, Associate at Holy Trinity-St. John, continues to engage an immigration attorney at great personal cost, to try and get another asylum hearing. Please keep Fr. Angel and his wife Doralis and their daughters Ivana and Victoria in your prayers. If you'd like to contribute to their legal fund, please contact Canon Dubai at fr.dubay@gmail.com.

The Spanish service at St. John's Holy Trinity will be moving to St. Paul's , Summerville in January to establish a new congregation. A deep need exists for a dedicated ministry to reach Spanish-speaking communities in the area, as there are 35,000 to 40,000 Spanish speakers who are not currently being effectively reached by local churches.

A new national group has been formed called El Puente to connect churches across different regions, and they are hoping to host a national conference in Atlanta.

In Christ Alone,
